

Online Safety Quiz

Name: _____

Date: _____

Class: _____

1. To stay safe, what question should you ask yourself before saying anything online?

- a. What site should I post this on?
- b. What is a more interesting way I can say this?
- c. How can I get more people to see this?
- d. Would I say this in person?

2. Posting something on a social networking app is most like:

- a. Saying something to your family over dinner
- b. Handing in a homework assignment
- c. Talking on the phone with a friend
- d. Announcing something in a public place

3. When is it okay to submit your personal information to an app?

- a. When you are promised money in return.
- b. When you receive a text requesting personal info.
- c. When your parents say it's okay.
- d. When all of your friends have already done it.

4. Olive is a 12-year-old girl living in Atlanta, Georgia. Which user name is the safest for her?

- a. OliveOyl55
- b. GeorgiaPeach
- c. AstroCat
- d. TweenGurl2006

5. Why do you need to be more cautious with friends you meet online than with the friends you meet at school?

- a. Online, it's more difficult to tell if people are who they say they are.
- b. Most people on the Internet aren't as trustworthy as people in the real world.
- c. Friendships that begin online aren't "real".
- d. Most online friends are probably adults pretending to be kids.

6. What's safe to do with a new online friend?

- a. Planning an in-person meetup
- b. Chatting about favorite books and movies
- c. Exchanging phone numbers
- d. Exchanging photos of yourselves

7. If someone is cyberbullying you, what should you do?

- a. Delete the messages and log off the site.
- b. Confront the cyberbully in person.
- c. Try to forget about it and move on.
- d. Block the person and report it to the site's administrators.

8. Which password is the strongest?

- a. Elsa2004
- b. abc123
- c. IAmAGr8Guy!$%
- d. *%&$#(!)

9. If you're confronted by a difficult situation online, and you don't know how to handle it, what should you do?

- a. Ask an online friend for help.
- b. Tell an adult you trust.
- c. Turn off the computer.
- d. Make an educated guess.

10. What's the best policy for interacting online?

- a. Respect those whose beliefs match your own
- b. Say whatever comes into your head
- c. Treat others how you want to be treated
- d. Ignore people who you don't know